

July 17, 2023

Dear Dr. Evgenia Georganda,

On behalf of the Society for Humanistic Psychology, Division 32, it is my pleasure, as this year's Awards Chair, to inform you that the Executive Board has unanimously voted to present you and The Hellenic Society for Existential Psychology with the 2023 Charlotte and Karl Bühler Award that honors an institution, and an individual associated with an institution, that has made an outstanding and lasting contribution to humanistic psychology.

The Awards committee, and the Division 32 Board, would be honored if you would be able to attend the celebration ceremony to be hosted during the APA Convention in Washington, DC (<https://convention.apa.org/>). Though it is encouraged, registration for the convention is not required to attend the award ceremony, it is open to the public.

Date: Friday; August 4, 2023
Time: 7:00 PM EDT
Location: Division 32 Suite
Marriott Marquis Hotel
901 Massachusetts Ave NW

During the ceremony, the colleague that introduces you will highlight your contributions to the field. This will be followed by your words of acceptance. See the attached schedule of events and feel free to distribute widely.

Please confirm your willingness to accept this award by July 20, 2023. In the meantime, so that I can arrange for the award plaque to be made, please provide me with the following by July 24, 2023:

1. Headshot jpeg
2. Full name as you would like it to appear
3. Degree, ABPP, or other credential as you wish it to appear on your plaque
4. Institutional affiliation as you wish it to appear in our program
5. A 250-words biographical sketch

In closing, the Society for Humanistic Psychology is looking forward to celebrating this award with you, and hope that you will be able to attend the ceremony.

Sincerely,

Theopia Jackson, Ph.D.
Awards Chair
Society for Humanistic Psychology
Division 32, American Psychological Association
tjackson@saybrook.edu